TIER II WORKER

Rocky Mountain Education Center: Memorandum of Agreement Authorization to Instruct; Access to Teaching Materials; Use and Non-Disclosure

Having successfully completed the Susan Harwood Leadership Train the Trainer Course you are an authorized Instructor for Field Leadership – Improving the Teaching and Learning of Fall Prevention Practices in the Construction Industry. You may present and train this course. You must use the teaching materials contained on the attached CD. You agree that:

When you schedule a class you must notify RMEC at least 2 weeks prior to the course start date with the number of students expected. RMEC will send participant manuals, eligibility forms, student assessments and sign in sheet. You must certify with your signature the full attendance of each participant on the sign in sheet before returning the form to RMEC.

By accepting a digital copy of the proprietary training materials from RMEC you agree that materials will only be used in its entirety for the instruction of this course. Only an authorized instructor may use the teaching materials. At no time will content be shared, copied or modified for use in other courses or shared, published or copied in any other form.

This agreement EXPIRES September 30, 2018. You may renegotiate terms of instruction with RMEC after that date by contacting RMEC as noted below.

I promise to make a good faith effort to train no fewer than 10 workers before September 30, 2018.
